| About | A regular First Aider responds to people experiencing physical injury. They provide initial help and facilitate access to more specialist support. This course works on the basis that there is a role in our communities for mental health first aiders – people that feel confident to go to someone experiencing emotional distress, provide initial help and guide them towards more specialist support. This accredited evidence-based course covers how to respond to 8 to 18 year-olds experiencing mental and emotional distress. |
| Expected outcomes | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Spot the early signs of a mental health problem• Feel confident helping someone experiencing a mental health problem• Provide help on a first aid basis• Help prevent someone from hurting themselves or others• Help stop a mental health problem from getting worse• Help someone recover faster• Guide someone towards the right support• Reduce the stigma of mental health problems |
| How to book | To book a space on this course please email admin@peartreespring.herts.sch.uk with your contact details, the course you are interested in and the number of places required. |
