

Hertfordshire support for Pupils and Young People on the autism spectrum
Schools programme Autism Education Trust (AET) Free Training

AET vision - 'all children and young people with autism receive an education which enables them to fulfil their aspirations and engage in society as active citizens'

Our Hertfordshire aim is to enable increased understanding and awareness of autism leading to a positive whole school ethos and good practice which actively supports our children and young people with autism

Course title:	Good Autism Practice
Suitable for:-	INCO/SENCo, class teachers and support staff with some understanding of autism Useful if 2 people from the same school can attend
Focus of training:-	To review current practice and provision for children and young people with autism and to look at how this can be developed
When	Tuesday, 23rd October 2018 9.15-16.30
Where	The Niland Conference Centre 93 Elstree Rd, Bushey, WD23 4EE http://www.nilandconferencecentre.co.uk
Aims of the training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide opportunity for school staff to reflect on current provision and practice to support the needs of pupils and students with autism • Identify through the AET Competencies whether personal practice is developing, established or enhanced with • Time to create a plan of action to develop practice
Booking a place	E-mail Training-AET@Hertfordshire.gov.uk Further details will be provided on confirmation of your place Some refreshments will be available

Look at the AET website www.autismeducationtrust.org.uk for more detail about the work of the AET and available resources